

Manager, Student Programs & Marketing (Vancouver)

Farris is a high performance full service law firm, with offices in Vancouver, Kelowna and Victoria.

Farris seeks a Manager, Student Programs & Marketing for its Vancouver office. In this role you will be responsible for all aspects of the student programs, including the recruitment and professional development of summer and articling students, as well as liaising with law schools. You will work closely with our Director, Professional Development and Marketing on recruitment initiatives relating to students and junior lawyers. You will also assist the Director, Professional Development and Marketing in carrying out the firm's overall branding and marketing strategy, and you will work with individual lawyers in designing and implementing individualized marketing initiatives.

This position is located in our Vancouver office and requires occasional travel to Canadian Universities in BC and across Canada. If you are seeking a unique opportunity in a law firm working with lawyers and students, this could be the right move for you.

Successful candidates will have:

- A law degree with at least 3 years of experience in a large law firm, or experience in a similar role
- Strong interpersonal skills and initiative
- Excellent writing / organizational skills
- An interest in recruitment / professional development / marketing

We invite you to send your application with cover letter to Sharan Sangha by September 14, 2020.

We thank all applicants for their interest in the position; however, only those selected for an interview will be contacted.
